“ I remember living on Third St. And playing with Pam . My mother would only let me go to her house or Vanessa Rutherford's...I remember always wanting to stay just another hour and she would call my Mom saying let her stay. She was so funny and pretty and boy that red convertible.....my deepest condolences to the family.

“ Thank you Genevieve, Pam and Charles for opening your doors to me and my children. For always making us feel warm and welcoming. The one thing I will always remember of your Mom was her affectionate smile and her contagious laughter. May her soul rest in peace, I firmly believe that God has accepted her with open arms for all the good she has done while she was here on this earth...So rest until God returns

“ WOW! I recall growing up in Peoria and going to Aunt G.G. & Uncle Sylvester's house. They had me believing for years growing up that they were the ones who sang Proud Mary. The funny thing is it wasn't until I was darn near grown that I realized that my Aunt G.G. & Uncle Sylvester were not Ike and Tina Turner! Aunt G.G. used to tell me all the time to "Shake my Money Maker." Lawd have mercy again, I didn't even get it until I was darn near grown.

No matter how many years would pass much like my mother her telephone number stayed the same for years. And I remember on my way to school every day we would pass Aunt G.G.'s house on Stuebenville. May God be well pleased with Aunt G.G.,she is missed much.

God's Speed!

“ To my cousins, they're's so much I can say about my Aunt GG, I loved her sense of family, the laughter,and comfort from just being around her. Everytimes I came to Peoria to visit she would make time to come and see me. (Rain or shine). I will miss that. I will always keep you in my heart. May you rest in peace with the other families. You're in Gods hand, he will that care of you now. Love you Aunt GG. Your niece

“ Aunt GG- What can I say....Often we won't remember exactly what people said or did. But we WILL always remember how they made us feel. I remember whenever her and Uncle Sylvester would come by my grandmother's house on Gordon it was nothing but love and laughter. She always made me laugh. It never failed. She was witty, fun, charismatic, nurturing, kind, and loving. She absolutely loved her family and took care of everyone. THAT is what I saw and learned from Aunt Gigi without her even saying a word. She embodied love and humor to me...I will miss that. But I know she is with the rest of her family resting comfortably and more than likely cracking jokes. So I will smile.
