“ I love you so much Mama and I want to thank you for everything you've done for me and I know it wasn't easy having a transgender child but you loved me and accepted me regardless what anyone said and always told me not to care what people think and now that I won't be able to hear you tell me that anymore it means so much more and I promise I'll never forget it not too long ago I was eating some chips and grabbed my phone to call you to have one of our talks on the phone like we always do and stopped myself once I realized what I was doing and just started breaking down but knowing your restored in health and that your with Grandma and Grandpa and other loved ones we have lost is the only thing helping me get through this terrible time and even though I cant see you I know you are watching over me and the rest of the family and that you always will I love you forever and always my queen 🥰
