“ The passing of our oldest sister is a great loss to our family. She was a caring loving sister, loving and outstanding mother, a loving and very gracious grandmother. The Lord gave her to us for a reason; to care for her sisters and brothers while we were children and to guide us into adulthood. She will be missed by us all but the memories will be in our hearts as we go through our final journey as she did hers and her sister before her Emma. Rest our dear mother and sisters, rest until we meet again. We love you!
