“ Ms Cassandra was the best warrior friend anyone could have. An encouraging, faith filled woman with deep caring for everyone, even if she didn't agree with you. She taught me so much about faith in action, fierce determination to serve, and to embrace life fully with love and laughter. Peace and joy to you, friend! My condolences to her family and other friends. She will be sorely missed but we know she will always be with us and watching over us!

“ On behalf of the Pray for the Cure Board of Directors and the Peoria, Bloomington and Springfield Committees, we are deeply sadden by the passing of Cassandra. She was a faithful member of the Peoria committee. She was instrumental in community financial support and participating at the annual event. We reference the Bible scripture in saying "Well done faithful servant." Respectfully submitted by Rev. Linda Butler, President of Pray for the Cure, Inc.

“ My big sister, Cassandra! You will be truly missed. Cassandra has always referred to me as her little brother. I don't think she has ever called me Darryl. Cassandra & I have always stayed in contact with one another. I love you Cassandra & will miss you. As you always have told me, Baby, I'm tired! With that being said, " get your rest!" Love you forever!!

I have known Cassandra for over 40 years. She was a person who had a lot of compassion for people and willing to help people at all times. NOT ONLY as a friend but as a supervisor and/or employer, she has help many of peoples find job placements or to suggest where to find jobs in the community. Take your rest MY SISTER, God has set you free from your earthly labors.

Danita Hilliard from Indianapolis, Indiana. Cassaundra and I met when I was 10 yrs. old when she would spend the Summers with her Aunt and Uncle in Indianapolis. I am now 70 yrs. old. As our friendship blossomed over the years, we became family and loved each other as cousins. My heart is broken 💔 over her sudden unexpected death. I thank God for her friend Analiesa, whom I do not know, who contacted me through a text message informing about Cassaundra's demise and her funeral services. God really works in mysterious ways! I thank you so very much! I know Cassaundra is in a better place with our Lord; free from pain and worry. She is gone in the physical realm, but she will never be forgotten! 🙏🙏🙏
