“Christine always showed warmth and kindness all the years that I've known her. We had the most absolute best time when Christine was one of my sister Jeannette's bridesmaid many years ago. Christine was a wonderful Mother. Her boys loved to come over and play as soon as they could walk. We have many love filled memories to cherish. My thoughts and prayers go out to the Duncan and Gibson family. from Leora (Wilson) Berry

“ To my Gibson family... My heart is broken for my beloved Chris. I will always remember as a little girl, growing up, hearing her laugh, watching her eyes twinkle when she smiled and thinking to myself just how pretty my mom's friends are! How she treated me like a daughter and how much I loved going over to her house! When I learned to drive, I would run to the store to grab a Pepsi when I'd come to visit...she used to love her some Pepsi! There's so many things I loved about her. She was apart of so many milestones in my life and I am so grateful and proud to say I knew her. She will live, forever, in my heart. I love you all...thank you for sharing your gem

To the family of my beloved friend. I will truly miss Chris. We shared so many years together, doing so many fun things. Her smile and amazing glow was a joy to all that knew her. I know that she is home now where there is no more suffering or pain. And for that I say Thank you and Amen. Stay strong and keep the faith, Our Father in Heaven will see you through.
