“ Man bruh I miss you my dude. You must not have known how many people and how we loved you. Man baby boy my heart hurts to have to go thru this I never would have thought that you would leave me. Words can never explain the love we have for you. Last night when my kids and I prayed my babies prayed for you asking God to just hold their Uncle Chris. Brought me to tears my babies miss you man. If nothing else in the world dude you had much love for all kids. You treated every child that crossed your path like your own. I know when I miss your smile I'll just look in the mirror and smile at myself. Man baby boy you were my heart, my twin, my baby, there is nothing we couldn't fix together. Love you baby boy.....
