“ My Brother, you always had a big smile on the surface and in your heart. I wish I would of known, but just know you have always been in my prayers and heart. You and Wardell always looked at me as your lil sis, and didn't mind letting it be known. I love you and this tree will be in honor of your remembrance and will live on forever. So although your soul leaves this earth your spirit will live on forever. Love your lil sis, April

“ Peaceful Journey my brother. Love you man. The last time I saw you was when you came to my home some years back. It meant so much because you and Wardell both told me that you were proud of me, it was genuine and straight from the heart. I will never forget that or forget any of the memories that I had when I was younger and growing up around you.
