“ My cousin Dorothy was one of the most selfless and giving spirits that I know. Every time she came to Chicago, it was a good time. Her and her Aunt Barbara (my mom), shared a very close bond. Our home would always be filled with laughter and love whenever she came. I'm sad that you are not here with us, but I'm glad that you don't have to suffer anymore. My deepest condolences to your family. Say hello to my mom and Uncle Man! Your loving cousin, Wanda.

“ I will miss my sister dearly. She was a great listener, and always there when I needed her the most. She used to say, "brother I'm coming down there and go fishing with you and Gail one day". God had a better plan. RIP "DOT". I love you and will miss talking to you. My deepest condolences to the family.
