“ I'm really late, this just brought tears to my eyes as I looked him up again. I lost contact with Douglas when I moved from Atlanta. I tried looking him up every now but no luck. I think it was in 2009 or 2010 when I last spoke with him. This man had a heart of gold and he will truly be missed. My Dad passed in 2002 and I moved to Atlanta and met a great man at working at Gwinnett county public schools. He was more than a friend he was more like a father figure to me & a grandfather to my son Tyreese. I had the pleasure of meeting his two sons that lived with him at that time but never met his daughter, I only spoke with her over the phone. He had a great sense of humor in his own corny but funny way... lol

My son & I stay laughing about the jokes he cracked and the good times we had with him.

I tried to keep in touch with him after I moved away but he is a very private man. Douglas would invite me, my son, and my boyfriend over for dinner from time to time, he made some of the best spaghetti ever. He also enjoyed Golf, he was a big (Tiger Woods) fan! He would often talk to me about the sport but it would go right over my head.. lol I truly loved my friend he taught me a lot of things and educated me well on my black history. I will forever miss him and I know God has him doing great things in heaven. My condolences to the family he was a great man and friend like no other.

Thank You Lord for blessing me with such a good friend ... Douglas F.

“ To the Falkner family, We are very sorry in the loss of your loved one. I (Marjorie) worked for Mr. Falkner at the Peoria Housing Authority, and found him to be a boss that was concerned about the welfare of his employees. There was not one time that I did not go, and talk to him about a problem on the job that he did not provide me with good sound advice as to how to solve the problem that produced good results. We are praying that the Lord will sustain you in your hour of bereavement.
