“ A neighborhood friend, a high school best friend. I spent my first over night with Sis. So many great times. Talking on the phone. Talking about boys, driving around in Larry's car, listening to the record player. Going to Hunts and sharing our most private thoughts. I love you Sis, thank you for being a part of my life, when life was carefree, fun and innocent. You will always be in my heart. Sandra Kay Cary!

“ My condolence, deepest sympathy, comfort goes out to the family, especially Larry Eugene, Gregory and Monica. Sorry I was not able to make it. Elizabeth was known as Sis to me. She was indeed a big Sis after my own sister Jean had died. Words can not express how I am feeling. Sis was my close friend as well as my cousin. Sis stuck by me through good and bad times. We were a source of encouragement to one another. As we got older we didn't talk much because of all of our own pains and discomforts. However, the last time we talked was last year and we were talking about the pains we experience being old (smile). She was in good spirits and feisty as ever. When someone we love dies, it affect us all. My comfort comes from God's Word the Bible. Isaiah 25: 8 says, "He (meaning Jehovah God) will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces....for He has spoken it". Revelation 21: 4 says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". John 5: 28-29 says, "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice, and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and ones who did bad things to a resurrection of judgement". From this Scripture I know that Sis have a hope for a resurrection right here on earth. Why? Because the Scripture says at Psalms 37: 11, "The meek ones will possess the earth, and they will find exquisite delight in the abundance of peace...Forever". With that being said, Sis, I will be looking for you and everyone I love who have fallen asleep in death. God is not the blame for mankind's suffering and death for He is a loving God and He did not purpose for us to grow old or die. The latter part of Hebrews 2: 14 says, "The one having the means to cause death, that is, the Devil". God's Kingdom under the rulership of His son Christ Jesus will restore this old wicked world with its enemy death, back to its original purpose for mankind to live in peace under righteous conditions. Larry, Gregory, Monica and all her grandchildren who she so much love. May Jehovah bless you and comfort you at this time of grief. Love and appreciate knowing such a woman as Sis. Goodbye to such a black Nubian queen. Your cousin JaneEtta
