“ Felix, never approached me without a smile and that warm hug, he always had a joke that would just crack me up, he was that fresh breath of air on a long crazy day, use to love him stopping by my room on campus, because you knew your jaws were going to be hurting!

For the Shackelford family, I extend my prayers and condolences.

“ All through high school me and my oldest sister used to go to his house just to chill. He was always chilled; watching baseball or just enjoying the weather. I had a lot of good times partying at his house also. We met through a mutual friend, Gary, and he ended up being a really good, memorable friend of mines. I will never forget him. Rest well my friend. Hug your dad. Bernice (he had his own way of saying my name and I can hear it now).

“ Felix and I went to the Bahamas together in 1979. We were both a part of a Benedictine High School Basketball Team that played in a tournament there. When we got to Eight Mile Rock High School (they were the hosts) on Freeport Grand Bahama Island, our coach asked if any one in our group wanted to address the assembly we were at. The whole school was there. So Felix and I stepped up, looked out at everyone., and I said to him.... I don't know about anyone else Shack.... but you and me....we are going to have a ball!! The place exploded! When we left that stage we were the kings of the island and they treated us like that the whole week that we were there....and we were only 17!

Felix has been a friend of mine for as long as I can remember. Our families were close...his dad...Big Shack...loved me like I was one of his own as did Momma Shack. He was always larger than life...but he was a loyal friend. If you needed something...and he was your friend...you were good...and he never bragged about what he did for you...and never looked for anything in return.

When he was in California, he would call me almost every night. He would always tell me...man you should come out here...I need someone I can relate to. I know he missed home so we'd talk for hours. It was good for the both of us...sorta our way of looking out for each other even though we were 3000 miles away.

I could go on and on....so I'll close by saying if you never had the chance to really know him...you really missed something...because he was a special person. I'm going to miss my friend

“ Felix could talk his way into anything and out of anything to. The world greatest salesman. No one better!

Randle Ponder you should remember The Super Bowl in the ATL 1993. Shack talked the three of us in Warren Moon Super Bowl party. What was so Great about what he did was that Warren Moon couldn't get into his own party, he was behind us in line. Felix was an amazing friend.

My prayers go out to Felix Shackelford and family from Gillis B Williams, Jr and family.
