“ God, I don't know where to start. I have so many beautiful memories of Gail, it pains my heart deeply to know we can't share laughs about the escapades of our youth as we did many times over yrs wherever I would go home or after she moved to Illinois we would talk from time to time, always reminiscing about the good old days.. I will cherish those moments Forever. Rest on dear friend, I will see you on the other side

“ To The Family of Mrs. Gail Freeman Parkman:

To Rev. James W. Parkman, To my best friend I love you and there is nothing I can do to take away the pain, sorrow, the missing her, the hearing her singing to God, missing her cooking those good old meals everyday, missing her and you just talking, holding her, kissing you and just...I can't do nothing for you my dear friend.

I know a man, called Jesus whom I can't be compared to, but He do it, eased the pain in your heart were I can't do it. I know a man who can take His arms and put them around you because Jesus will tell the Father who is Love, because God is love, God is peace, God is understanding, God is hope, God is our father, mother our wife and our children, God is our all in all, God is.....I am said I am.

What can I say to my best friend when it seems like his whole world just came falling down around you and nobody would help you. I am here with you, if need to cry I will cry for you, when you need someone to talk to, talk to me I know you have the Holy Spirit who is willing to talk to you everyday and night. Night time is the hardest of time to sleep because you will be missing her real bad and it's not wrong if you start to cry. Remember everybody cry, men cry. Jim when your burden gets heavy and we can't carry them, give them to Jesus because He is willing to do it for you. Amen God bless you my dear friend, buddy. See you real soon.

“ To The Family of Mrs. Gail Freeman
Parkman:

I pray that God will take your pain away through His Son Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. I pray that God will place joy and peace in your heart by way of the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of God.

I loved to hear Mrs. Gail sing at Agape Baptist Church, "I know the Lord will make away somehow, Like a ship that's toss'd and driven, Battered by an angry sea, When the storms of life are raging And the their fury falls on me, I wonder what I have done That makes this race so hard to run, Then I say to my soul, take courage, The Lord will make away somehow".

I know one day we will be there with Jesus praising God because Jesus will make away somehow. Amen
