“ Garrison "Butch" Collins a 1971 classmate at Flint Southwestern H.S. (The Colts). A very friendly and loving guy who had a intense love for music and life. I'm glad he was able to record several spiritual songs on a CD which will keep his memory strong for his family and his friends. Gone much too soon but he will be singing in GOD's Choir.

“ Fair Winds and Following Seas to my shipmate and dear friend. Butch, I still see you doing your favorite dance to "DAZZ" by BRICK back in 1976 when we were stationed in Rota, Spain. I will forever remember the good times we shared. I pray and ask that your soul be received favorably into the hands of the Lord and that you will forever be at peace. Of course, I'll never forget our Michigan State and UNC basketball rivalries. Peace out my brother.
