“ *I am so heart broken at the knowledge of George Smith's passing. I like many other grew up with the Smith's in the Taft Homes all becoming such good friends. I recently ran into Clyde Summerville and he informed me that he had just left George and told me where he was staying. Because I had business in the neighborhood where he lived everyday, I road by his home hoping to see George while it was warm. Finally one day he was standing out talking with a friend. I did not know he was ill, but I am so glad that I saw him finally for he and Clyde and I and more went back a long way. RIH my dear friend and may God bless your heavenly soul. May your light shine in Heaven as it did on earth. My deepest condolences to you family.

“ To the entire Smith family, my family, my heart is sadden for the lost of Junior, I hadn't seen him in years and this year I ran into him twice and it was a true joy to see him and talk with him, he knew exactly who I was. We know you all come from some strong and loving genes and you all will get thru this. Keep praying and leaning on the Lord for comfort and strength.

Praying for you all,
