“ I was very sorry to read about Ira's passing. When I was a kid, he was our neighbor. He was always kind and considerate. I was happy to see him later in life, as a member of St. Paul. He and my husband James talked a lot. We found out he lived nearby when we lived on Nebraska. Your family has our condolences and prayers. He will be truly missed and fondly remembered.

“ Cuzin Ira is the 1st cuzin of my mom. He and Cuzin Alfred use to come to Hope Arkansas and visit. They had other family here but, they always came to see my mom. He was always soft spoken and very handsome. (it runs in our family). My heart goes out to our family. May the Lord lift your bowed down heads.., wipe your tears, and ease your pain. Remember the years that God allowed you to enjoy him. Been there. It's not easy but time and prayer will heal. Love y'all family and we are praying for you❤️❤️❤️🙏🙏🙏
