Ms. Jeonia “Gee” Latrice Randle, 38, of Peoria, Illinois, transitioned from this life to her heavenly home at 12:22 PM on Saturday, May 4, 2019 at Unity Point Methodist Hospital.

Jeonia was born on March 29, 1981 in Chicago to Deloris and Leon Randle. Jeonia confessed her hope in Christ at an early age. She attended Original Greater Rock under the leadership of Pastor Eugene Burrage. Jeonia was a loving, kind and free-spirited person. She was a joy to be around and would always have the good parties. Everywhere you go someone knew and loved Ms. Gee. She loved caring for her family; especially her boys, who were her world. Jeonia will always be remembered for her huge smile she wore on her face despite her pain. She knew life was a gift and always believed in it. She last worked at the Peoria Tri County Urban League’s Parent Child Center where her passion for caring and loving other people’s children was utilized. Jeonia leaves to cherish her most precious memory her beloved sons; Demetrius Haywood, KeJuan Irby and DeVeaughn Johnson all of Peoria; her mother Deloris of Louisville, KY; her loving companion for 17 years, Juan Irby of Peoria; her sisters, Necie Randle of Louisville, KY, Cynthia Randle (Mitchell

“ I'm still in disbelief from loosing you. Our last fun time was your birthday party. We had so much fun and you were so beautiful and happy that night. When I spoke to you last on FaceTime, you was in the hospital but you still had that big smile on your face. I miss and love you sooo much my dear niece, but I know that God doesn't make mistakes.
