“ Thank you Martha for sharing your mother with me. All I had to do was go over your house after church and your mother would have Dinner ready. I think she knew I was coming over after church, so she would cook a little more on Sunday's. Prayers to the entire family that God will comfort and keep you. I will forever remember your mother warm smile & sweet sprit and her good food she would cook every Sunday. Love you all !!❤️🙏 from Diane Hardimon

“ Grandmother words can't begin to express the the feelings of loosing you
Such a virtuous woman in so many ways how I remember you
A lighthearted spirit with so many talents
Prepared me for this world showed me wisdom with actions Hard to say goodbye but plenty memories to last Like making homemade popcorn on the stove or rubbing your feet while you sleep at last
A master in the kitchen type a food would make you pack your bags I looked forward to Saturday mornings when my senses would be awaken by the smell of your delicious pancakes cookin Or holidays when everyone would crowd over your house during Thanksgiving or Christmas for your famous cookin
Thank you for never giving up on me Showing me love and kindness when the world turned its back on me
Being a voice of reason in my troubled seasons
Giving and never looking for anything in return
A woman about her business soft but firm
Grandma by teaching me you passed on a legacy Even when I would fail you'd take my hand and stand up tall next to me
Remember when brother Paul prayed for you and you cold turkey nicotine
Put the Lord first and you showed me you can do anything Glowing up I was close to your visions.
Always returned home you were my heart
Forever with you and God y'all active tenants In the fall we would plants seeds and by the spring they would bloom
Watching you smile was a sight to see
Such a beautiful woman shining inside and out it was plain to see Your glowing skin and warm hugs that made my heart ripple like waves with affection
Will be forever etched in my perception
Of you.

Loving you always and forever more. Peace be to a Queen of many hats .A matriarch with a heart of gold.May God bless your seeds and your memory burn like waves of embers reflecting your eternal soul.

“ An angel lived among us, a gift from God above. She showered us with kindness and shared with us her love. She cherished every moment with the man who was her life. Facing life with all its strife, she loved her children dearly, each one a different way, nestled close within her heart, though now she's far away, she gone to live with Jesus but she's here with us today smiling down on every one of us and telling us she's ok. Mom, you will be forever missed! You are my angel. There is so much my wife and I wanted to share with you. We miss you and you'll NEVER be forgotten!
Love your son Robert and daughter-in-law 🙏🙏🙏

“ Jerry Dean was an old childhood's friend of mine. We got back in touch some years ago and we were good friends as adults. We would talk on the phone weekly and send birthday cards and Christmas gifts to each other. We often would talk of our hometown in Mississippi and shared a lot of memories about when we were younger. We talked about the goodness of God in lives and how He has been good to us throughout the years. I will certainly miss my friend. I am praying for the peace of God and for His comfort for her family and friends. God bless -Sarah Calvin

“ All praise and glory be to the Lord our God, who blessed us with my Beautiful, Loving, Patient, Kind-Spirited Mom. Growing up as the youngest of six siblings, I watched my Mom selflessly give each of her kids what they needed or what they wanted appropriate to the circumstances. My Mom grew up as the elder daughter of her siblings, and she may have been accustomed to selflessly giving to those around her. I remember playing in the yard one Saturday afternoon, and the church deacon from Blain St. Church asked my Mom if we could visit the church on Sunday to hear the "Good News" Gospel of Jesus Christ. She said yes. Thank God she brought us up to fear the Lord. I remember she would remind us that we should try to do what's right before God in how we treat others and our relationships.

My Mom was also fun. She laughed with me during TV programs I liked because she knew I liked them. Yet, this is another example of her kind humility toward others. She always shared stories of her upbringing with me and impactful experiences in her life. I grew up watching her cook her delicious signature meals, including mustard greens, homemade cornbread, hen and dressing, and apple jelly cake. She was always there for me like an angel. My Mom was the most important, beautiful, clean, and decent person in my life. She made the experience of being her "baby" seem next to impossible to accept her passing on to God. This experience leaves a void in the pulses of my heart, stomach, and mind.

I pray: "The Lord bless you and keep you, make his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you. The Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace". In Jesus name, Amen.

Love Always,
Your "Baby" Janette Huff
