“ My biggest memory of Grandpa Jessie is his laugh, his love of food, his business mindset, and the military... he wasn't my blood grandfather, but I always treated him as such...always and forever... love you

“ I came to Peoria in 1968 and meet Jesse shortly thereafter. I never ceased to be amazed at the extent of his imagination and his dreams. Just a couple of weeks ago we talked about his ideas and things that he wanted to do. His sweet spirit and positive outlook made him fun to be around.

We worked several projects together, traveled to Western South Dakota one day to look at a project. Worked over all of Central Illinois and Eastern Iowa and even a Job in Atlanta before he moved there.

He was a great guy, didn't have "no" in his vocabulary, & his calm demeanor made our relationship a blessing.

To Shirley and his entire family, I pray God's comfort for now and for the future ahead
