"Noonie" was our childhood friend from "Robert A Taft Home". Her and my cousin (deceased) Mildred McDowell were a dancing couple (boys) were to bashful so we girls would dance with each other. Let me share my most fond memory Mildred slid "Noonie" into a group of chairs dancing so fast. We had I a childhood no matter how poor we where but we where rich in genuine childhood fun. R.I.P. Antonette and Pam and the rest of you all. I didn't know your mother personally. But to hear the way you and Pam talked of her, I feel I knew her. My daughter had the pleasure of meeting her. And spoke highly of her. she raise her children and live her life to the fullest. You did all you could do. Now let her rest. You all loved her, but God loves her best. Stay as beautiful as you are and she was. Ms. Ethel
