“ To the Henderson Family,

I remember Lloyd back in 1976 as a football player at Peoria High School; playing alongside my boyfriend, Bryant Ragler. Those were really fun times in Peoria. Lloyd was like a real big brother to me. Before I was old enough to drive, he would drive me around town in his taxicab to parties, friend's houses and candy stores; like those were really important places to go.:) As time went on, he always seemed to be at the right place at the right time. Showing up just in time to protect me from a bully, or ward off some guy just trying to give me grief.... I will always smile when I think about those free cab rides to Stinson Hall, and his overall kindness to me. He was a hero to me and I hate to hear he's gone.

“ Over the years our visits were few, but each time we would see each other—it was always like “a yesterday”. Conversations were long, reminiscing about our times growing up together, always cherishing our family gatherings. Lloyd will always be in my thoughts as I see his big beautiful smile and recall his enthusiasm about the topic of the day! Gone but not forgotten, your cousin Betty Duncan.
