“ Mother Loretta Smith

A precious, godly soul, a woman with a contagious smile that warms your heart. One day, her smile, her laughter and sense of humor, was so captivating, it drew my husband's attention to give her a kiss on the cheek. Then responding to me "She's just a sweet and cute little old lady".

A woman with a genuine personality. She had many interests and possessed many things: her independence, little trinkets, hats, shoes and a warehouse of purses.

In her final stages of life, she kept in her heart the number one thing that would move mountains, break yokes, restore relationships, mend the broken hearted, but would say, "Just give me JESUS".

Her deepest, desire was focused on worshiping JESUS in spite of life's circumstances. We frequently sang one of her favorite songs of worship, "Amazing Grace". Watching her in tears of emotions as we sang.

"Amazing grace shall always be my song of Praise, He looked beyond my faults and saw my need. He loved me so. ..Tis grace that brought me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home. The Lord has been so good to me, yea when this flesh and heart shall fail, and mortal life shall cease, I shall possess, within the veil, a life of joy and peace.

Truly Mother Smith was an AMAZING woman.

“ Cathy, I am sorry for your loss you and your family our in my prayer. You mother was a kindhearted woman who had a golden smile. I remember us taking her shopping. She loved to shop. Cathy just is why you love to shop. Remember all the good times with your mother who loved unconditionally. Love you sister in law LaTonya Harris-Jackson

“ Mom thank you for always sharing your smiles, your witty sense of humor, your discipline, and your unconditional love for us and especially for God. When you would drag me (Cathy) all over the country and we had to fly, you held my hand to calm my nerves because I hated flying. Theresa & I will never forget how you so unselfishly cared for our sister, Frannie, during her decline in health. I'll never forget how before you became comatose you asked me to kiss your face at least 4 times. I'll always treasure that moment. You told us to put a huge red hat (your favorite color) on your head when they put you in the casket. It's not huge, but mom it's red. The pain of having to let you go was unbearable. However, you belonged to God first. Now you're safe and pain free in his arms. Mom, you'll always have permanent occupancy in our hearts. Your daughters
❤️ Cathy & Theresa
