“ Big Dawg we gone miss you down Money man. I love you my boi and my pops Ruby love you too. I know God got a spot for you my boi, save us one. I remember as a kid living 1820 North Peoria you had a green drop top I was a shorty then. I use to post up and wait on you for the link card for snacks. I just knew you was coming every time 100 it went from snacks to me becoming a teenager in Chicago waiting on you every week to take that ride to the city. All my life I wanted to be just like you a loving caring family man who would give the world if you had it to give. I'm mad I ain't get to chop it up with you before you left us to let you know how much I grown up. I got 3 kids now, I'm working, I ain't that bad ass lil thug no more. I've grown Big Dawg but I will still smoke you under the table. I'm blowing 6 for you right now Bos 🌟. Love you, see you when I get there. Love Mone
