*Just found out about her passing today 12/08/2020.
I knew her from Capital Place, grade school years (Lincoln School).
She was a few years older, so recall little about her (I knew her sister Yvonne more or less), I may have walked by her many times not knowing who I was seeing). Regardless, from what I recall, way back then she was a beautiful and loving person.
Idk why but I think recall that picture.
I think this world is one person short of good people like her.
Rest in Peace My Friend!

“ I was so saddened to hear of Joyce's passing. She and I started out at Bethel Methodist Church as little girls, our mothers were friends. We reconnected in our adult life at Krogers as co-workers and we reminiced over our lives together over our lunches. Our friendship never faded. God gives us many flowers in our lifetime. We just don't realize how much they truly mean to us until one day you look up and that flower has been plucked away 4ever. RIH My 4ever Friend. GBNF Love U 💔 & Family My Thoughts And Prayers Are With You All. 🙏🙏🙏💕💕💕
