“ Mike was like a big brother to me when I started at Igloo back in 1998. We worked together, golfed together, he introduced me to Mud Bugs and great Cajun Food. I still think about him today and miss his chuckle and humming "da da da da da duh" when things got wonky

“ Had the pleasure of meeting and working with Michael at Igloo. I was early in my career as a tool maker. He taught me how to take pride in my work and craftsmanship. Also took the time to teach me how to TIG weld after bugging him for a while... lol He would tell me to practice, practice and practice more.

Rest easy friend....

“ Michael was one of those individuals who adds so much to one life just by being part of it. I was at Igloo all the years he was and worked directly with him most of them. I appreciated his skills, knowledge and work ethic. I learned a lot from Michael, especially about humanity. When things aren't going like you like and Michael would show up with that low key chuckle and smile everything started to look a little better. My Man the world is missing you already!

“ May 1990 - July 31, 2024. FRIENDSHIP. A true friend, a real friend. To say Mike is missed is an understatement; I am truly lost knowing I will no longer receive a call or text but I am assured you are present with Our Lord and Saviour in Heaven. Our last visit together, just hours before The Lord called you home, you touched your heart, you told me you were having a hard time breathing. I told you to continue to trust in The Lord; you were so emotional, you simply said "I will". Mike, you can now breath. I'm grateful for the times we shared and will always cherish the memories. Until we meet again.
