“ Best crossing guard ever. She wiped our tears wiped our nose ask what was wrong. How we were doing. And where we been and where we going. My mom left before we did and she would inform her what time we made it to her stop in the morning and afternoon. If we were late she would tell us get in her Cadillac and she would take us all to Irving school. Now that I look back. I can't remember her ever missing a day of work. She was always there with hat,gloves,scarves, Kleenex. Etc Etc. I can recall her buying coats and shoes. It was more like she was a pastor or mentor. She meant a lot to each and every child walking from the Taft homes to Irving School. Nothing but great memories.

“ To The Mildred V. Teague Family: May the Lord continues to walk with you and bless the family and friends. The Lord will make a way out of no way. Keep your hands in the Lord Jesus Christ hands.

I loved The Teague Family members dearly, their lives showed love, a way of living in this city. They loved their families in their own special way. I thank you for our long talk on the phone, talking about the God and His Family to help our family to be a better family as well to make us a better person.

She was Sweet Lady and a kind lady in heart. God bless you and your family and friends.

“ My condolences to the Teague Family. Share and enjoy all your wonderful memories of Mrs Teague. I still picture her at Ward Chapel Church as our Deaconess. I also picture her as a crossing guard on Jefferson St. Each morning she was finishing bundling up the children on their way to school. Coats buttoned, hats gloves and scarves adjusted. All done with love.

Lookin back at this in the year of 2025, it's been a minute since I looked back at my great great granny's site. I still miss her every day, ever since she been gone the whole family don't get together anymore. We use to come together as a family on Thanksgiving, Christmas, sometimes Halloween. I miss it, I love you granny.
