“ God is not the author of confusion. No one can erase or displace the memories we shared or the pure love you had for your true family. As if losing you wasn't enough heartache, it's painful to witness the chaos your departure has left behind. You were always about peace and happiness—a chill grandpa who never missed a milestone and always shared wisdom and guidance. What are we going to do without you? I know you are in a better place now, where there is no more pain or suffering. When I received the news, time stood still. The pain of your absence will never fade. I thank God for giving me you. I'll always love you, I'll always be your firstborn granddaughter, and most importantly, I'll always be your puddy forevermore.
