

Mother Olivia Deadwyler

May 10, 1924 - May 26, 2012

Mother Olivia Deadwyler, age 88, of Peoria, IL, passed away peacefully at 4:14 am on Saturday, May 26, 2012. God stopped by Bel-Wood Nursing Home and took Mother Olivia Deadwyler from labor to reward.

Mother Deadwyler was born May 10, 1924 in Chicago, IL to Maunds and Jannie (Mason) Pierce. She married Bishop Jack Deadwyler, Jr., on September 7, 1979, in Chicago. He passed away March 11, 2003.

Mother Deadwyler leaves to cherish her precious memories two stepchildren: Jack Deadwyler, of Peoria, and Rosemary P. (and James C.) Thomas of Springfield, IL and one sister, Mattie Maloney of Chicago. Also surviving are her niece, Lois Bunkley, of Chicago; one step-grandson, Jesse Wilson of Springfield; her church family; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, and three brothers. Mother Deadwyler was a seamstress and a homemaker. She was a member of First Apostolic Pentecostal Church of Jesus Christ where she formerly served as the pastor's wife, a church mother, and the church secretary for many years. She loved planting flowers, sewing, living for the Lord, and she once loved bowling.

Home going services will be held, Thursday, May 31, 2012 at 11 a.m. at the Pentecostal Church of Jesus Christ, 401 Elm St., Peoria, IL. A visitation will be one hour prior to the service beginning at 10 a.m. Officiants, Pastors Henry Bolden, II, Naymond Williams and Leon Pace, Jr. Sis. Deadwyler will be entombed at Swan Lake Memory Gardens Mausoleum alongside her beloved husband.
