

Ms. Patricia Ann Davis

December 13, 1946 - November 15, 2020

Ms. Patricia Ann Davis, 73, passed away peacefully at 6:06 pm on November 15, 2020 at her home in Peoria, IL surrounded by family and loved ones. Pat was born on December 13, 1946 to Roscoe, Sr., and Queenola (McAfee) Davis in St. Louis, MO.

Pat worked as a manager for many years at the original Big John's BBQ and recently as a vehicle operator for MV Transportation.

Pat leaves to cherish her most precious memory her two children; Tobias (Lori) Davis of Columbus, OH and Tafhi Harris of Chandler, AZ; five brothers, Roscoe Davis, Jr., and Larry (Patricia) Davis of Peoria, IL, Bobby Jo Davis of Ocala, FL, Dwayne (Helen) Davis of Newnan, GA and Mark Davis of Oakland, CA; two sisters, Janice Pickett of Oakland, CA and Robin Davis of Peoria, IL; five grandchildren: Nia, Rachel, Zoe, Preston, and Parker; her beloved dog, Duke and a host of nieces, nephews and her many friends and co-workers who loved her cooking and vivacious spirit. She was preceded in death by her parents; two brothers, Ronald Davis and Keith LaHarold Jones and two sisters, Marilyn Yarborough and Yolanda Davis.

A private graveside service will be held at 2 pm on Thursday, November 19, 2020 at Lutheran Cemetery. Vice Chief Bishop Leroy Smith of Church of the Living God, Peoria will bring words of comfort. Special thanks to Simons Mortuary and Lutheran Cemetery.

Simons Mortuary has been entrusted with arrangements. Online condolences may be made at SimonsMortuary.com.

The graveside service will be live streamed on Simons Mortuary's Website or Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/Simons-Mortuary-23209530348>
7150 PROMPTLY AT THE TIME OF THE SERVICE.

Due to Covid-19 restrictions, social distancing and attendance limits will be observed. As the States begin re-opening in response to the Global Coronavirus Pandemic, some people are returning to their previous normal living standards. Unfortunately, we are now in our new normal as unreal and sometimes uncomfortable as the socially distancing and continuous use of protective masks may feel.

*In an effort to mitigate the spread of COVID-19, we ask that everyone in attendance: wear a face mask and refrain from hugging, kissing and shaking hands (as hard as it is to see someone you care about and not touch them).

Thanks in advance for your cooperation!

*It is our responsibility as a Funeral Directors, to do everything we can to advise families in order to honor our beloved Families and to keep everyone as safe as possible.

“ Love you and miss you even more, mom 😞 Three long and short years without you have been trying, to say the least. So much has happened and still happening, as life keeps on life'ing! You would be in awe of some of those "things" smh Rest in God's loving grace and I'll see you when I get there 🕊️✨❤️

“ My birthday has come and we decided it was a good day to pay you a visit! Nia took Harlow to see you and she couldn't stop walking around, touching and looking at your final resting place. It was a joyfully somber moment ☐😭 I had a medical setback recently and all I could do was thank God I made it to this birthday 🙏🙏🙏 Shay didn't make it though, mom, and I hope you were there to greet her as she passed through those pearly gates 😊 I miss you all, terribly... Until I see you again ☐🕊

“ A special day I can't share with you has come and I'm truly saddened. It's hard to talk to anyone on this day because my voice gets choked up and I refuse to make anyone else sad on this glorious day! Guide me into a space where that isn't allowed any longer because I know they all understand my sadness isn't for nothing. I love you mom and I love the memories of our last year together... our last Mother's Day. They replay over and over in my mind. Continue to keep watch over me(us). Help protect me from the strife your sister keeps bringing to my life before it's too late. I pray you're resting and at peace always and Lord knows I hope I'm making you proud ☐☐ I miss you as much as I love you... 🌹 Happy Mother's Day 🕊

“ 2 years 💔 smh Not one day that goes by is without thought of you. A laugh, a cry, an intense longing, a yearning for the good old days. Lately, I've been thinking about the trips to your favorite stores. When we used to shop for whatever the occasion called for, back to school, holidays, or just a simple trip to the grocery store to grab something for dinner. Little subtle reminders are triggering... the look of evening time, between 5-7 o'clock, the smell of burning leaves, certain ways the sun hits the trees, and on and on, makes me miss you so much it hurts. Everyday, God shows me why I trust that you are safe. No worries. No sadness or sickness or pain. No overthinking about troubles that keep you up at night. Wally and I are doing good, but somehow I believe you already know that. I can't help but imagine life with you and Harlow and how much we'd enjoy working together to support Nia becoming a mother herself. These days are hard and have become harder over time because I mourn you so greatly, still, but I have met a gentleman who has spoken life into my heart to where I believe I'll be alright, I just have to work at it just as hard. He put things into perspective. He said would your mother want you sad all the time? Would she want you putting yourself in a position where your job, home life, and relationships are affected because of sadness?! And as he was saying this, it began reminding me that no, you wouldn't! You would want me to know that you are with God! You are safe and happy and rejoicing and that yes, you would want me to be my old, happy self again. Mom, I promise I'm going to work at it. I still want you to be proud!! Once I figure out my new normal, I will put a plan in place and I will work to getting myself up out this funk I'm in! I'm going to end this now... I just wanted to get this off my chest. I feel like I picked up the phone and called you, which the habit of doing so still creeps in, from time to time. I miss you mom and I love you so much. I hope you come visit me in my dreams soon so I can hug you. 💔

“ To the Family of Patricia Ann Davis - I was shocked to learn of Tricia Ann's passing. She was such an outgoing person with a luminous smile. I always enjoyed chatting with her. She never changed from our time growing up in Taft. I pray God will grant you peace & give you the strength to contend with your loss.
