He was a devoted father and caretaker to both of “his girls,” as he made sure he provided his unyielding love and care for his family. He planned to marry his longtime friend, Maiya and continue to raise their family together. He also expressed interest in pursuing a degree in social work, following the footsteps of his father. Averi loved and spent time with his grandparents in Richmond, VA, Gene and JoAnne Huett as well as his grandparents, Robert and Annette Gilkesson in Charlotte, NC. He was particularly bonded with his grandfather, the late Robert M. Gilkesson, affectionately known as “Old Grand-dad 100.” They often spent countless hours talking and laughing with one another. His grand-father preceded him in death on December 4, 2021.

Reggie “Averi” was a loving father, son, grandson, nephew and friend. He accepted Jesus Christ as his savior in 2010, while visiting family in Peoria, Illinois. He was also baptized in Richmond, VA. He often spoke about his relationship with God, sharing that he walks and talks with God. He was a true gift from God and had a good heart for those he loved. Although his early life was short, his eternal life will be celebrated on June 28, 2023 and remembered forever. He enjoyed his final day on this earth by spending precious moments with his mother, Maiya, and “the girls” at The Taste of Charlotte. He will be truly missed by his family, loved ones, and friends.
