Rose also known as Lori Ann Whickum-Young was born on August 23, 1963 to Laura (Tinsley) Greene and Charles Young, Sr.

Rose had a great enthusiasm for teaching. Following in her mother's footsteps to teach. Her passion and greatest accomplishment was obtaining her Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice and she was only 6 hours away from completing her Master's Degree. Rose loved teaching so much that she started Rose's Tutoring Service in which she taught some of her present class room students. Her tutoring program became so popular that she began teaching other children from the community. Most of all Rose loved spending time with her daughters, grandchildren, great granddaughter, mom and sisters as well as other family members. When she wanted to relax, she loved to go fishing or watching sports such as football and basketball.
