“ When I relocated from a different state and married Ruben's brother Ray, Ruben was the first one that captured my heart. That big infectious smile and warm loving personality that no one could resist. I had no family in the area. When Ray and I were married, I asked Ruben to walk me down the aisle, which he excitedly did. Since that day Ruben and I shared a special bond along with some mischievous adventures along the way. It saddens me that you were taken but I know you are no longer in pain. The reassuring part is that I know you are forever smiling down upon up. I bet you look great with those beautiful wings you've earned. Love you little brother. RIH. Until we meet again. ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ As I sit and think of your infectious smile cousin knowing I won't see you this family reunion saddens me greatly. I look forward to seeing all of our family members and now you're suddenly gone . It seems so unfair but the Master said be prepared . None of us were ready for this day ,but you Cousin Ruben were called the other day up heavens way . So take your must needed rest because you're going to see the best. He loves you the most now we must take your earthy post So sleep well with all of rest and we'll see you later when we have our test. Love you 4ever CUZ. ❤️
