“ *Pretty Poised with a Ponytail... that's how I'll remember you.
Loving bluntness in the things you said
Compassion in the things you'd do*

*I loved to hear your reaction when
You would hear of something creative I did.
“Well all right Ms.Dee!” you'd say.
(Embarrassingly I'd smile like a little kid)*

*One thing I remember is how you lectured me
No I've never forgotten that day*

*I was walking by feeling sad, and hopeless
You talked to me for at least an hour or two,
And I didn't leave the same way. (Thank you)*

*And you knew how “funny acting “I can be
So we'd only see each other once in a while*

*But when you did see me it was the same reaction...
Kind words, a hug, and a smile.*

*You taught me a lesson over the years,
Without even knowing you did.*

*No matter what you heard about me Good or bad
You've treated me the same since I was a kid. (Thank you)*

*My heart hurts even more for your children
I couldn't imagine the pain in losing you.*

*But I know you are so proud in who they all grew up to be
And how your love shaped, and molded them,
And is a part of everything they do.*

Forgive us for the shock we all feel,

*From suddenly having to say goodbye
But it was just like you, to wear your strength like armor*

And that's all we saw, so maybe that's the reason why.

*Now that your voice is silent
God is loudly letting us remember what we heard
And giving us clear vision of the examples of Love through
Your actions
And the importance of your message through your words*

*I'm guilty of carrying grudges and staying angry
(but you knew that)
And even now, you are teaching a lesson.*

*That in this World, anger, arguments, pain,
And materialistic things are just for a moment
But time is precious, and who God says is your family
Is a priceless Blessing...*

*Thank you for being Family
Just thank you for BEING..
.I'm smiling because I know I'll see you again, Dee*

“ My condolences goes to Ruthies family and also friends. I didnt know her very well except meeting her at my mother Evelyn's work, Peoria Production Shop. Sister In Law, I first met you as a classmate, we both were gentle, kind and very quiet. Never knew you would become the wife of my brother Earl, I was so happy when you entered into our family. We were oh so young when we married and started our families, we've shared some interesting conversations from that bond. You have always had a spot in my heart. I will be here for your children whenever they need me. You rest peacefully in the bosom of our Lord Jesus Christ. Love you Ruthie Lee (Flatt) Willis
