“ My condolences and prayers are with the family. I remember Sallie very well. My grandmother Elizabeth Morris sung with her in The Willing Four. My sister and I used to attend their rehearsals all the time. I was between 4-10 Yrs old in 92-98 When rehearsal was at her house we played with a little boy who was always there. I can't remember his name but I think he was her grandson. I am in Atlanta now but I will never forget that group of ladies. The way they loved God influenced my foundation with God. They are probably singing together now. I love you all and God bless.
