“ I am very sorry for all of our loss. This is a picture of Vince in Mary Barthel's 6th grade Kellar Central class. I'd see him and keep in touch as the years passed. One time he pulled a tattered newspaper clipping from his wallet that he always carried. It was a basketball box score from during his 6th grade. He was the leading scorer. It always made him feel good to remember that experience. I am grateful to have been one of his many friends. Scott Hay

“ *Dear Vince,
I've only known you a few short years but with your personality it seems like I've known you forever, gonna miss our talks through out the day. Your smile and your laugh was so infectious. Your leaving us so abruptly has us all so unsettled! Can't tell you how bad we miss you brother as you are to me. The atmosphere is still strong with your presence. I truly hope that you have found the peace that your were looking for.*

Going to and everyday since you left miss you "my brother".

“MEMORIES BE LIKE: Keller Central hoops. Warner Homes balling. Roosevelt School games. Webster School hanging out...Diary Queen on Adams eating chili dogs. Mr. Snarr third period @ Richwoods...Mary Coffee walking down the hall... I could go on forever!

MEMORIES BE LIKE: MLK park. Jerry C. Kenny J. Chris C. Vincent S. Bukie. Charles T. Kevin T. Jerome S. Faye P. Charmaine L. Peggy, Tyrus, Deveare P, Ursula, White-boy- Gangsta City Riders-our teen years...

I vividly remember watching the Washington Bullets spank Dr. J in the 1977 playoffs right in your apartment in the projects with you always giving color commentary like Brent Musberger. That was the coolest stuff. The SuperSonics went on to beat Washington Bullets for the championship and I easily recall watching the game at your apartment in the Warner Homes.

You were such a passionate hoops' fan and a great host making your sisters mad as we ate the family snacks.

I first saw you play ball at Roosevelt school where you were the point guard (WITH THE GLASSES) for Kellar Central.

It was at your place when I first saw Duke play in the NCAA tournament and became a fan forever. You were always a friendly soul and got along with everybody. You were well dressed as a teen and showcased a def and mad style even back then that made you cooler than a ceiling fan! LOL...I remember Henry's arcades where we played pinball after school.

The last time I saw you it was well over forty years ago. It was the last day of school and I remember your sister, affectionately known as Flammy, had just suddenly transitioned. You were at the MLK court shooting around with Kenny J and you talked about it but you had such a steely resolve and focus that made me never forgot that June day. Your spirit was always bigger than your body, Vincent.

Even though you came up in a small city you had a big time mentality from another world.

After all these years I'm sure you probably forgot me - but even though our paths crossed for such a brief time- I never forgot you; and never will. My spirit ACHES and MOANS when I think about what happened to you in MLK park where so much of our teen years unfolded, brother! I am sorry for what happened to you ,Vincent. I pray that your spirit and family find peace in Jesus's name!

“ I am so very very heartbroken. I can remember when we were in high school (Richwoods), and we was graduating and my mother called the school and told them to give my diploma to my brother because I just had my son, and they gave it to Vincent who drove around with my diploma in his Rivera for months. I love him for so many reasons, but mainly for never being anything other than who he is ALL THE TIME.
