“ P-Town

We love you and miss you. We miss your laughter, your gagging on us, your quirky one liners like "Would you Stop", Stlyin' and Profiln', and how you would always say I would be pulling up in my Bugatti. LOL. Man, what can we say, Until we meet again, we are so happy that we were able to spend time with you.

Miss you and love you forever

“ Scott, thank you for sharing your incredible talent through the Journal Star. I learned so much from you, and I can't put into words what that means to me. I miss working on projects together. I miss you saying, "put the type where you want it to go." I miss that simple, "Yeah, there you go," when we were done. I will miss that smile and that laugh. You told me often, "You the man." But it was you who was the man. I am thankful I got to work with greatness.

Marcie it is hard to lose a child & I know what you are going through. Hold on to your faith because God will see you through

“ I worked with Scott for several years at the Journal Star. He always put his best effort into his art and had a unique style, two examples of which hang on walls in our house. His quiet, serious approach could be breached by a good joke, which would end with him saying "Stop it" as he tried not to smile.

“ Scott,

You will be greatly missed. Thank you for being such a wonderful friend over the years. Until we see each other again. Your funny laugh when you tried to hold it in but couldn't. Your passion for Christ that manifest like holy indignation that we often joked about. your desire to learn about Jesus Christ and to be a true disciple of Jesus Christ. We would sing "Jesus Saves" over and over. We never got tired. And then we would laugh about how bad our singing was then do it all over again. Man, we will miss you. Condolences to the family.
