“ Hey Sheldon ☐
Just wanted to give you an update... I'm working on my second degree, Sonography. I graduate next May after I pass these last two boards. It breaks my heart you aren't here to see it, but I feel you with me every step of the way. Just stay close and help me make it across that finish line. I love you and miss you more than words or tears could ever explain. I pray life is treating you well up there ☐☐
