We go so far back I can't remember where we even got started Tracey. We've always just been kindred spirits and enjoying life and I enjoy that you enjoyed life and every time I saw you you like you were enjoying life. Your spirit was light and this little video captures a glimpse of that and so rest in Heaven until we meet again some sweet day my dear sweet sweet friend.

You made it home TraLove.

LOVE YOU. You know the Asheville High class of 1980 had, has and will have mad love for you always.

“ Oh My Goodness. There are just so many stories I could tell, but I'll start with our very first meeting...She walked into the office and declared to me that she was going to be my 'new best friend'. I had my doubts and she proved me wrong. Over the years we spent so much time together, specially at her condo in Greenbelt and when she was living with her aunt and uncle in Brookville. Tracey had that ability to make everyone feel like you are her best friend ever! I don't think she ever met a stranger and that smile of hers is contagious!. My heart is broken for the loss of this wonderful lady, and I feel bad for anyone that didn't have the opportunity to meet her and be a part of her circle. She touched many and her life met to you, will always be! We carry people and their spirits with us throughout our lives. It's what makes us human. Rest in perfect peace Trace!
